

Fingal Sailing School

Established over 30 years ago, we're located on the back estuary in Malahide - a perfect place for learning or improving any water skills. The water in front of the school is sheltered & safe so provides an ideal location to get going. Our instructors will be at your side offering tips & encouragement throughout your session. Once you gain confidence & are in control you can venture out to the middle of the estuary which has more challenging conditions.

We're conveniently located within a 5 min walk of Malahide train station. The Dart is a short 20 min journey from Dublin city centre. Malahide is also serviced by Dublin Bus #42, 32 & 102. Alternatively it's a 10 min drive to the M1 & M50 for all national routes.
